

Empirical Research (with R)

Based On True Stories

Marco Kühne

2021-08-06

Contents

1	TEST	5
2	Introduction	7
3	Literature	9
4	Methods	11
5	Git and Github	13
5.1	Install Github and Git	13
5.2	Working with Git	13
5.3	Basic Routines	13
5.4	Resources	13

Chapter 1

TEST

Welcome to my bookdown. Bye.

```
bookdown::render_book()
```

Chapter 2

Introduction

Hello World

Second hi

<https://medium.com/@delucmat/how-to-publish-bookdown-projects-with-github-actions-on-github-pages-6e6aecc7331e>

I need a `_book` directory:

The `.html` files (which were compiled from the `.Rmd` files) are all stored within the `_book` directory which basically serves as a static website.

Chapter 3

Literature

Here is a review of existing methods.

Chapter 4

Methods

We describe our methods in this chapter.

Chapter 5

Git and Github

Placeholder

5.1 Install Github and Git

5.2 Working with Git

5.2.1 `git version`

5.2.2 `git config`

5.2.3 `git init`

5.2.4 `git status` and `diff`

5.2.5 `git commit`

5.2.6 `git add`

5.2.7 `git remote add`

5.2.8 `git push`

5.3 Basic Routines

5.3.1 Add + Commit + Push

5.4 Resources